Congresswoman Claudia Tenney Endorsed by State and Local Elected Officials Across NY-24

Canandaigua, NY – Congresswoman Claudia Tenney, candidate for Congress in New York’s newly drawn 24th Congressional District, was endorsed by Senate Minority Leader Rob Ortt, Assemblyman Angelo Morinello, Assemblyman Mike Norris, Assembly Minority Leader Will Barclay, Oswego County Sheriff Don Hilton, Assemblyman Mark Walczyk, Assemblyman Ken Blankenbush, and Assemblyman David DiPietro.

"We need strong, conservative leaders in Washington who will put the needs of America and their community first. That’s why I am proud to announce my full support for Congresswoman Claudia Tenney. I look forward to working with her on behalf of the great people of Niagara and Orleans counties," said Senate Minority Leader Rob Ortt.

"Claudia Tenney is a Marine Mom, small business owner and a compassionate advocate for all New Yorkers in Congress. As an Assemblywoman and Congresswoman, Claudia has taken on the culture of corruption in our politics and is upholding the highest standard of ethics in our government. I am proud to support Claudia for New York’s 24th district and will work with her to deliver results for Niagara County," said Assemblyman Angelo Morinello.

"I am proud to announce my endorsement of Congresswoman Claudia Tenney for New York’s 24th District. Claudia is a conservative fighter Western New York needs to tackle the inflation crisis, secure the border and support our law enforcement. Claudia’s recent leadership on the Susan Muffley Act in support of Delphi retirees is evident of her strong commitment to our region. I encourage everyone to get out and vote for Claudia on August 23rd," said Assemblyman Mike Norris.

"Claudia Tenney is a friend, colleague and outstanding representative for Oswego County in Congress. She is a strong voice for our law enforcement officers, Second Amendment Rights and small businesses. Claudia understands the needs and concerns of upstate New Yorkers and has always fought on behalf of our communities. I look forward to continuing to work with Claudia, delivering real results for our shared constituents," said Assembly Minority Leader Will Barclay.

"When New York Sheriffs and law enforcement need support in Congress, they can always count on Claudia Tenney to back the blue. Claudia has a detailed Law Enforcement Plan that would protect our qualified immunity, give us the resources we need to keep our communities safe, establish a law enforcement bill of rights and keep dangerous criminals behind bars. Congresswoman Tenney has been a leading voice against the defund the police movement and is fighting alongside law enforcement officials across New York to repeal disastrous bail reform. I know Claudia will always have our back Congress and am proud to endorse her for re-election,” said Oswego County Sheriff Don Hilton.

“Congresswoman Tenney is fighting every day for the constitutional rights of all New Yorkers. She has a strong record on the Second Amendment, is leading the fight for election integrity and has always stood with Lake Ontario property owners against unnecessary flooding. I am thrilled to endorse Claudia for Congress in New York’s 24th District and look forward to working with her,” said Assemblyman Mark Walczyk.

“I’ve had the honor to serve alongside Claudia Tenney when she was in the State Assembly and share part of a district with her in Congress. Claudia is a strong conservative leader and compassionate advocate for our communities. She will continue fighting to hold Biden and Hochul accountable and has my full support in her campaign to represent the newly drawn 24th district,” said Assemblyman Ken Blankenbush.

“When I served in the New York State Assembly with Claudia Tenney, we were both part of the ‘Assembly six-pack,’ a group of six legislators standing together to vote no on every disastrous bill put forward by Governor Cuomo and Albany Democrats. Now, Claudia has taken that fight to Congress and is rated the most conservative member of the New York State congressional delegation. Claudia is fighting for our medical freedom against unconstitutional vaccine mandates, is a champion for our Second Amendment Rights and has always stood strong against the Democrats’ ‘woke’ agenda. I am honored to join President Trump by endorsing Claudia Tenney’s campaign for New York 24 and encourage everyone to get out and vote for Claudia on August 23rd,” said Assemblyman David DiPietro.

“I am honored to have the endorsement of local elected officials across New York’s 24th District. Senate Minority Leader Rob Ortt, Assemblyman Angelo Morinello, Assemblyman Mike Norris, Assembly Minority Leader Will Barclay, Oswego County Sheriff Don Hilton, Assemblyman Mark Walczyk, Assemblyman Ken Blankenbush, and Assemblyman David DiPietro are leaders in their communities and I am honored to have their support. Our Republican team is unified and ready to take the fight to Joe Biden, Kathy Hochul and the Democrats this November. I look forward to working with all Republican elected officials in New York 24 to ensure we fire Nancy Pelosi, save New York and win up and down the ballot,” said Congresswoman Claudia Tenney.
